Classic Albums Live: The Beatles' Abbey Road

Date and Time: Thursday, April 2 7:30 pm - 9:30 pm

Address: 440 Locust Street

Classic Albums Live and its roster of A-list musicians perform The Beatles' Abbey Road, note for note, cut for cut. Released in 1969, this was the last recorded album by the best-selling band of all time. Abbey Road stands as a masterpiece, seamlessly blending rock, pop, blues, and symphonic elements into a cohesive sonic experience.

With tracks like "Come Together," "Something," and the epic medley that closes the album, Abbey Road captures The Beatles' creative genius at its peak. It remains a timeless testament to their musical legacy.

AGB Community and Medicine Garden Opening

Date and Time: Saturday, April 11 11:00 am - 3:00 pm

Address: 1333 Lakeshore Rd Burlington Ontario

FREE

Come connect, plant, learn, and celebrate the arrival of spring after a long winter.

Refreshments and materials provided.

Participants will take part in a series of guided, hands-on activities throughout the garden. The day will begin with seed songs shared by Kaniehtenhawi Deer, grounding the planting in intention and connection to the land.

Michele Dent will lead a session on tobacco planting and teachings, sharing knowledge about the cultural significance of tobacco and guiding participants in how to plant and care for seedlings throughout the growing season.

Looking to start a garden at home or in your neighbourhood? Guests can take home seed packages generously provided by OSC Seeds, and BurlingtonGreen will lead a hands-on seed ball-making activity. These small balls of clay, soil, and wildflower seeds can be taken home and planted to support pollinators and native plant growth.

Date and Time: Wednesday, April 22 10:00 am - 4:00 pm

Address: 1240 North Shore Blvd E

Canada's food is as diverse as its people. The way we eat is shaped by over 400 years of immigration. Food connects people to the past, to place, and to other people. eat make share: a taste of immigration explores the connections between food and immigration in Canada through the universal experiences of eating, making, and sharing food.

- Discover the surprising histories behind popular Canadian dishes.
- Learn how individuals and communities express themselves through food.
- Engage in diverse food traditions practised in Canada through hands-on and multisensory activities.

eat make share: a taste of immigration is a travelling exhibition created by the Canadian Museum of Immigration at Pier 21 and presented by BMO, on view at Joseph Brant Museum April 18 – September 5, 2026.

Everyone is welcome!

Burlington Repair Cafe

Date and Time: Saturday, April 25 2:00 pm - 4:00 pm

Address: 2331 New Street

In celebration of Earth (Day) Week, Burlington residents are invited to bring in their broken/damaged small household appliances and other mechanical items and our volunteers will help you fix those items keeping them in use and out of the landfill. There is no charge for this service, however if a special part is needed, the resident is expected to bring it in. Also, simple textile repairs (no alterations) for rips or tears in garments and other clothing items can be done. Please send us an email to explain what you wish to bring in and schedule a time on the day. Thank you Burlington Public Library for hosting this event.

Meet the Mayor – Drop-In Session at Burlington Centre Mall

The Mayor of Burlington would love to meet you! Join the Mayor of Burlington for a casual drop-in session at Burlington Centre Mall at 777 Guelph Line on Thursday, April 30 from 11:30 am - 1:30 pm.

Everyone is welcome to stop by and chat. The Mayor will meet individually with interested residents for up to 10 minutes to hear concerns, gather feedback, and answer questions. Come share your thoughts and connect with Mayor Meed Ward in a relaxed, accessible setting. Appointments on a first come, first served basis.

Ward 1 Town Hall

Date and Time: Thursday, April 30 6:30 pm - 8:30 pm

Address: 50 North Shore Blvd. E

Ward 1 is hosting a community engagement event where we are hosting important groups to share valuable information within their portfolio and how it directly effects our community and neighbourhoods. Join us for an upcoming Town Hall bringing together representatives from Halton Region and Indwell Supportive Housing to discuss important community topics including homelessness, encampments, community safety, and related concerns. This is an opportunity to hear directly from key partners, learn about current initiatives, and ask questions in an open and respectful setting. We encourage residents to attend, share their perspectives, and be part of the conversation as we work together to support a safe, informed, and compassionate community. We will be meeting at the Lasalle Pavillion, in the ballroom.
