CLEREL

Date and Time: Thursday, October 12 7:30 pm

Address: 440 Locust St.

Montréal based, Cameroonian-born soul singer, Clerel channels his varied musical influences into simple, soulful songs delivered heart to heart.

A natural-born vocalist, soul singer & songwriter Clerel nurtured his taste for melody in his coastal hometown of Douala, Cameroon, where he grew up listening to music from his parents' record collection, which ranged from church hymns and afrobeat to French chanson.

As a child, he developed a habit of singing his favorite songs to himself as a way to "listen" to them whenever he desired, an exercise that helped hone his signature smooth tone.

While he's spent most of 2020 working on a new collection of songs, Clerel has also appeared on reality TV show La Voix (The Voice Canada), and earlier this summer he took part in the Montreal International Jazz Festival, where he gave a highly acclaimed performance of his original music in front of an audience of over 3000 spectators.

ctators. Listeners around the world continue to fall in love with the young musician's soulful universe.

“He’s the discovery of the year in Montreal, [...] If this guy doesn’t explode and become a superstar, I do n’t know what’s happening.” – Laurent Saulnier, President, Montreal Jazz Fest, in Montreal Gazette

POSTPONED: Walking Tour - North Ward 2 – with Councillor Lisa Kearns

Date and Time: Saturday, October 14 1:00 pm - 3:00 pm

Address: 551 Brant Street

Update: October 14, 2023

Out of an abundance of caution, due to ongoing slippery conditions, I have made the decision to postpone the Walking Tour today.

We have certainly stuck to the rain or shine mantra when we were poured on last tour, but with the combination of ongoing rain and fallen leaves, everyone's safety is my top priority.

Staff will be onsite to provide handouts if you wish to continue on a self-guided tour or watch your emails as a new date is scheduled soon.

Thank you for your understanding.

-Councillor Kearns

I believe that when we share information together it helps us connect to our community and shared understanding of how decision making happens.

The next Walking Tour for North Ward 2 is Saturday, Oct. 14.

Place: Meet at 551 Brant Street (southwest corner of No Frills parking lot).

Note: wear comfy shoes, dress appropriately for the weather, be prepared to walk to the Burlington GO Train Station and back, rain or shine!

As always, all welcome.

WALKING THROUGH THE FIRE Indigenous Collaborations featuring Sultans of String & Friends

Date and Time: Sunday, October 22 7:00 pm

Address: 440 Locust St.

Award-winning First Nations, Métis, and Inuit artists performing with JUNO Award nominees Sultans of String, WALKING THROUGH THE FIRE is a musical multimedia event unlike any other! In support of the Gord Downie / Chanie Wenjack Fund.

This performance brings the magic of collaboration to the stage, with award-winning First Nations, Métis, and Inuit artists from across Turtle Island / Canada joined by BILLBOARD charting 3x JUNO Award nominees and 3x CFMA winners Sultans of String!

From Métis fiddling to an East Coast Kitchen Party, from Rumba to Rock, to the drumming of the Pacific Northwest, experience the beauty and diversity of musicians onstage with Alyssa Delbaere-Sawchuk of the Métis Fiddler Quartet, Ojibwe/Finnish Singer-Songwriter Marc Meriläinen (Nadjiwan), and Coast Tsm'syen Elder and Singer-Songwriter Shannon Thunderbird, as well as virtual guests on the big screen, including Dr. Duke Redbird, the Northern Cree Pow Wow group, and more!

The songs beautifully reveal the depths of contemporary Indigenous experience and music, expressed in the spirit of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission's 94 Calls to Action, and Final Report that asks that Indigenous and non-Indigenous people work together as an opportunity to show a path forward.

Indigenous Collaborations with Sultans of String: Walking Through the Fire - CD Release Extravaganza

This special performance presented by the Burlington Performing Arts Centre brings the magic of collaboration to the stage, with award-winning First Nations, Métis, and Inuit artists from across Turtle Island joined by Billboard charting/6x CFMA winners Sultans of String!

From Métis fiddling to an East Coast Kitchen Party, rumba to rock, to the drumming of the Pacific Northwest, experience the beauty and diversity of music from Turtle Island with Alyssa Delbaere-Sawchuk of the Métis Fiddler Quartet, Ojibwe/Finnish Singer-Songwriter Marc Meriläinen (Nadjiwan), Coast Tsm'syen Singer-Songwriter Shannon Thunderbird, as well as virtual guests joining in on the big screen, including Dr. Duke Redbird, the Northern Cree pow wow group, and more!

The songs beautifully reveal the depths of contemporary Indigenous experiences and music, expressed in the spirit of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission's 94 Calls to Action and Final Report that call for Indigenous and non-Indigenous people to work together as an opportunity to show a path forward.

"The very fact that you're doing this tells me that you believe in the validity of our language, you believe in the validity of our art and our music, and that you want to help to bring it out. And that's really what's important, is for people to have faith that we can do this."

- Honourable Murray Sinclair - Ojibwe Elder - former chair of the TRC

"We are opening doors for each other, as Indigenous peoples, as settler peoples. This project is about creating more connections through being a conduit, and creating more spaces to learn from each other."

- Alyssa Delbaere-Sawchuk, violist, Métis Fiddler Quartet

APRIL WINE

Date and Time: Thursday, October 26 8:00 pm

Address: 440 Locust St.

April Wine, a name chosen simply because they were two words that sounded good together. Fifteen studio albums, three live releases, numerous compilations, a boxed set and thousands of concerts later April Wine has become enormously popular in Canada, the United States and throughout the world. The band's second album featured the phenomenal hit You Could Have Been a Lady and was its first #1 hit in Canada. The group's ninth studio album, The Nature of the Beast, went double platinum in Canada and became April Wine's greatest success featuring the single Just Between You and Me. In March 2009, April Wine was inducted into the Canadian Music Industry Hall of Fame during Canadian Music Week in Toronto. They also received The Lifetime Achievement Award for being part of Canadian Music History for 40 years. In April 2010, at the Juno Awards, April Wine was inducted in to the Canadian Music Hall of Fame.

Hybrid Statutory Public Meeting

Date and Time: Tuesday, October 31 9:30 am - 8:00 pm

The City of Burlington is proposing an Official Plan Amendment and Community Planning Permit (CPP) By-law that will affect lands within the City's three Major Transit Stations Areas (MTSAs): Downtown Burlington Urban Growth Centre/Burlington GO, Aldershot GO and Appleby GO.

You are invited to a Statutory Public Meeting on Tuesday, October 31st to provide comments on the proposed Official Plan Amendment and Community Planning Permit (CPP) By-law. No decisions about the proposal have been made yet. We are asking for your feedback to inform staff's future recommended amendment and bylaw to the Community Planning, Regulation and Mobility Committee of Council later this year.

How to Participate in the Statutory Public Meeting

The staff information report, which contains a discussion on the draft amendment and by-law, will be available for public review on Friday, Oct. 20, 2023. The purpose of the report is to present and seek feedback on the draft amendment and by-law to all members of Council and the public. All feedback will inform staff's recommended amendment and by-law. The report will be available on the City's website at www.burlington.ca/calendar by searching for the meeting date for the Community Planning, Regulation and Mobility Committee. If you require a hard-copy of the report, please email the Clerks Department at clerks@burlington.ca to arrange pick-up.

NOTE: the meeting starts at 9:30 a.m. resuming at 6:30 p.m. if needed.

Delegating at the Statutory Public Meeting:

To speak at the statutory Public Meeting, there are two options:

1. Pre-register to speak by noon on Monday, Oct. 30, 2023. You can pre-register by:
 - a. filling in the delegation request form at www.burlington.ca/delegation;
 - b. submitting a written request by email to the Office of the City Clerk at clerks@burlington.ca or
 - c. calling 905-335-7600, ext. 7481.

2. Register during the Public Meeting.

- a. If you are attending the meeting virtually, you can register to speak by emailing clerks@burlington.ca.
- b. If you are attending the meeting in person, you can register to speak during the meeting by following instructions provided at the meeting.

Speakers are limited to a maximum of 10 minutes each and are webcasted online.

If you have presentation materials, they must be submitted to Jo-Anne Rudy, Committee Clerk at Jo-Anne.Rudy@burlington.ca no later than noon, Monday, Oct. 30, 2023 so they can be distributed and reviewed by all members of the Committee. The content of all submissions is considered public and will be posted to the City's website.

To Watch the Statutory Public Meeting Online:

The live webcast can also be accessed on the City's website at www.burlington.ca/calendar by searching for the meeting date
