 - a. Confidential supplemental memo regarding Confidential legal advice regarding a breach of solicitor-client privileged information - Millcroft Golf Course (LLS-20-26)

17. Rise and Report

Council reconvened into open session on March 10, 2026 at 3:19 p.m.

In closed session Council discussed and provided instructions to staff for item 16.2 Confidential legal advice regarding a breach of solicitor-client privileged information - Millcroft Golf course (LLS-20-26)

Moved by: Councillor Sharman
Seconded by: Councillor Bentivegna

Confirm that Council waives solicitor-client privilege over the specific information that was made public by Councillor Bentivegna and subsequently, as part of a joint statement, by Councillor Bentivegna and Mayor Meed Ward, based on the advice received, at the time from the CAO, that it could be disclosed. Once it was determined by the Commissioner of Legal and Legislative Services that there had been a breach of solicitor-client privilege, steps were taken to remove the information from social media and the two Members of Council apologized for their inadvertent error. Council accepted that apology.

Council's waiver applies only to the specific information that had already been disclosed publicly, namely:

- that Council authorized the CAO to negotiate the acquisition of the remaining Millcroft Golf Course lands and to report back to Council for further instructions should the owner be willing to sell at the offered price;
- that the Chief Administrative Officer contacted the owner to inquire about a potential City purchase of all or part of those lands for $15 million, a sum approximately three times the amount the golf course was purchased for in 2020, prior to residential use being permitted on the lands;
- that the owner subsequently advised the City that it was not interested in selling the remaining lands to the City at that price.

Confirm that Council waives solicitor-client privilege only with respect to the specific information that was publicly disclosed and that all other details related to this matter remain confidential and subject to solicitor-client privilege
