Burlington as we know it today is rich in history and modern traditions of many First Nations and the Métis. From the Anishinaabeg to the Haudenosaunee, and the Métis – our lands spanning from Lake Ontario to the Niagara Escarpment are steeped in Indigenous history.

The territory is mutually covered by the Dish with One Spoon Wampum Belt Covenant, an agreement between the Iroquois Confederacy, the Ojibway and other allied Nations to peaceably share and care for the resources around the Great Lakes.

We acknowledge that the land on which we gather is part of the Treaty Lands and Territory of the Mississaugas of the Credit.

Background

The Corporation of the City of Burlington is the sole shareholder of all issued shares in Burlington Enterprises Corporation (BEC). Council as a whole, acting by way of a resolution of Council, speaks on behalf of the sole shareholder for the purpose of conducting business that requires shareholder approval as stipulated in the City's shareholder's direction relating to the Burlington Enterprises Corporation.

Analysis

This report is being brought forward to a Special Council Shareholder meeting as BEC is requesting that certain matters of business obtain shareholder approval. Appendix A is a copy of the sole shareholder resolutions that require Council approval.

As stipulated in the Shareholder Direction, Burlington Enterprises Corporation (BEC) commits to providing the City with its audited financial statements and a comprehensive five-year business plan on an annual basis. The City has received the audited consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year 2025 along with a 10-year business roadmap for BEC. City Finance staff have reviewed both documents to discern any significant financial or strategic shifts necessitating the attention of the Council. Following a thorough review, no significant concerns or deviations were identified within these documents.

Additionally, BEC's external auditors, KPMG LLP, have rendered their professional judgment, affirming that the financial statements accurately depict, in all material respects, the financial performance of BEC in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS).
